

AUTUMN TOURS 2024

Changing Seasons

OCTOBER: 13, 20, 27

NOVEMBER: 3, 10, 17, 24

Day 1 – Arrival to Petropavlovsk-Kamchatskiy.

Arrival in PKC. Meeting at the airport with a guide (sign “KAMCHATINTOUR”). Transfer to a hotel in Paratunka or Petropavlovsk-Kamchasky. Check-in (after 14:00). Free time. Rest and bathing in hot thermal water swimming pool (if hotel is in Paratunka).

Day 2 – City-sightseeing. Pacific Ocean coast.

Breakfast at hotel. Transfer to the city center. Sightseeing tour of the city with a visit to the volcano museum "Vulcanarium", observation deck, city center, souvenir shop, market. Lunch at the restaurant (business lunch). Transfer to the Pacific Ocean coast. A walk along the coast. Return to the hotel.

Petropavlovsk-Kamchatskiy

The city history is rich in glorious events. The round-the-world expeditions of La Perouse, Charles Clark and Krusenstern came here and they all were met with a warm hospitality. Petropavlovsk-Kamchatskiy is a city of military glory. During the Crimean War in 1854, the defenders of Petropavlovsk successfully pushed back the superior forces of the Anglo-French squadron. You will learn this and much more during a city tour with an experienced guide.

Halaktyrsky beach

Foamy wave caps, black volcanic sand, iodine-soaked sea breeze are waiting for you at Halaktyrsky beach. This tourist attraction point is located literally half an hour's drive from Petropavlovsk. Feel the huge positive energy of the ocean, take exclusive photos, just walk along the seashore.

Day 3 – A trip to the foot of the Avacha volcano. Mount Camel

The Avachinskiy volcano (2751 m) is one of the most active volcanoes in Kamchatka. It is often called “home volcano” among Kamchatka’s people. Its crater is filled with hardened lava above which you can see rising clouds of fumaroles.

The tour starts from the “Kamchatintour” base camp which is situated at 890 m above sea level. The distance between PKC and the base camp is about 50 km.

An hour and a half walk to Mount Camel (named so for its external similarity) is possible for people with any physical fitness. The weather changes at an altitude of about 1000 meters above sea level every 15 minutes, clouds, fog, bright sun.

Breakfast at hotel. Transfer to the foothill of the Avachinskiy volcano by an all-terrain vehicle (about 2 hours). Arrival at the base camp, rest and safety instructions before trekking, trekking to the Camel mountain, lunch at the base camp. After the trekking you will have lunch at the base camp.
Transfer to the hotel.

ATTENTION!

Snowmobile equipment can be used from the end of november. The ascent of Mount Camel will take place only if the weather is good and there is no snow on the top of the mountain.

In case of snow, climbing Mount Camel will be replaced with a walk in the vicinity of the base camp.

Day 4 – Trip to Cape Mayachny

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to Cape Mayachny. Stop at the observation deck of the Three Brothers rocks. A trip to the tip of the cape. Walk. Lunch (picnic). Return to the hotel. Rest.

Cape Mayachny is an observation deck with a beautiful view of the Three Brothers rocks, the waters of Avacha Bay and the Pacific Ocean.

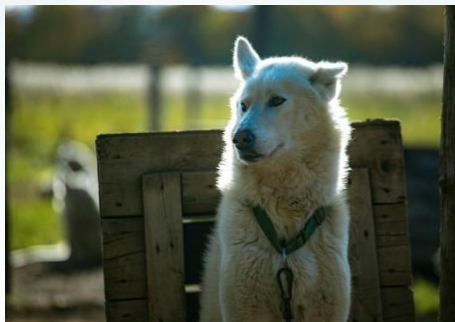

The cape got its name back in the XIX century, because signal fires were lit at this convenient place, indicating to sailors the entrance to a safe bay. Then, in 1850, a lighthouse was built, which was periodically rebuilt, but still performs its functions to this day. His appearance made the name of the cape official.

Changing Seasons

Day 5 – Dog kennel excursion and Zelenovskye Ozerki.

A village in an ethnic style introduces you to the culture of the native Kamchatka people (Koryaks, Itelmens and others). It is situated in an open area with a picturesque view of the volcanoes. Here the guests will have an excursion around the dog kennel and learn the history of the dog sledding sport in Kamchatka, listen to the stories about Kamchatka natives, watch traditional dances and learn some of the dancing moves. You can also take pictures in traditional costumes, learn about the Kamchatka natives' lifestyle, taste hot fish soup (oukha) in the open air.

"Zelenovskye Ozerki" is an establishment that provides pools and baths with radon and hydrogen sulfide containing water. Such water has an improving effect on our body, improves metabolism, stimulates skin regeneration.

Breakfast. Transfer to the ethnic complex (sled dogs kennel). Sled dogs kennel excursion. Meeting with representatives of the Kamchatka indigenous people, cultural ensemble performance, photoshoot in national clothes. Hot meal (fish soup / deer meet broth). Transfer to "Ozerki" (thermal water swimming pool facility). Bathing in the thermal radon containing water. Return to the hotel.
